

DRESSING NORMS AND ETIQUETTES TO BE FOLLOWED IN PRECLINICAL DEPARTMENTS

MIMER MEDICAL COLLEGE & DR. BSTR HOSPITAL
Talegaon, Pune

THE NORMS ENLISTED ARE TO BE TAUGHT AND REINFORCED AS FOLLOWS:

- ❖ DURING INDOCTRINATION
- ❖ PRE-CLINICAL – AT THE TIME OF DEPARTMENT INTRODUCTION
- ❖ PARA-CLINICAL - AT THE TIME OF DEPARTMENT INTRODUCTION
- ❖ AT THE BEGINNING OF EACH CLINICAL POSTING
- ❖ AT THE TIME OF INTERNSHIP ORIENTATION
- ❖ AT THE TIME OF EACH GROUP OF INTERN JOINING THE DEPARTMENT
- ❖ AT THE START OF RESIDENCY TRAINING

DRESSING NORMS AND ETIQUETTES TO BE FOLLOWED IN (ALL the preclinical departments) THE DEPARTMENT OF ANATOMY

Dressing norms:

All students must follow institutional rules for uniform on declared days as per Code of conduct book.

On non uniform days, both male and female students to be dressed in formal clothes. Wearing of neat, clean Apron is mandatory at all times while in the dissection hall and laboratories.

Footwear:

Male students to wear shoes; female students to wear non flashy, comfortable footwear

Hair :

Male students to always sport neat, trimmed hair. Facial hair should be kept neat and trimmed. Beards are to be avoided as far as possible

Female students to have hair tied up neatly, away from their face and eyes.

Etiquettes:

Dissection hall etiquettes:

When students are attending dissection hall they must observe the following:

- They must give due respect to the cadaver.
- Refrain from taking videos and photographs with the cadavers.
- Female students to have hair tied up neatly, away from their face and eyes.
- Students must avoid wearing long sleeves dresses or shirt.
- Photographs for research purpose will be allowed after permission from ethical committee and written application to Head of the Department.
- The student must speak to the fellow students, teachers & attendants in a courteous manner
- The student must show respectful and courteous behavior towards all staff members of the Department.

Laboratories :

During Demonstrations and in laboratories, the students will observe the following:

- They must handle the instruments, microscopes and slides & test tubes carefully.
- During laboratory experiments Female student's hair should be pleated and put inside apron.
- Loose ill fitted long sleeved outfits should be strictly avoided.
- All students to preferably wear long sleeved aprons during laboratory experiments.
- In case of any damage they must bring to the notice of attending staff and teacher in -charge
- They must always take verbal consent of the subject before interview/ examination.
- The observation of the clinical examinations being carried out therein must be done in a manner such that it does not offend the subject & interfere with the functioning of the Department
- The student must show respectful and courteous behavior towards all staff members of the departments.

NO KIND OF PHOTOGRAPHY/ VIDEOGRAPHY IS TO BE CARRIED OUT BY THE STUDENTS IN ANY OF THE LABORATORIES AND DISSECTION HALL