OUR LEGACY

यंत्र-तंत्रादि विज्ञानम् । लोक कल्याण साधनम् ॥

Prof. Dr. Vishwanath Dadarao Karad a visionary teacher well versed with history of World War-II had learnt how machines played perishing role of mass destruction and envisaged that if utilised for the benefit of society .

With this motto he started his mission called "MIT" in 1983. He did not just wanted to start a unique centre of quality education and started working in the direction of transforming pilgrims to knowledge divine centers.

Prof. Dr. Vishwanath Dadarao Karad is a name synonymous to a passionate volunteer, who has selflessly devoted to the field of education. He has been pivotal to the privatization of higher education in Maharashtra so that it is feasibly made available to all desiring and deserving students from all parts of Maharashtra.
