7.	Brief summary of the event in around 100 words (purpose, conduct, feedback, impact, suggestions)	An instructional session was conducted for nursing staff focusing on aseptic precautions during IV cannulation. The activity aimed to reinforce safe clinical practices and reduce catheter-related infections. Nurses were briefed on key steps, including proper hand hygiene, preparation of sterile equipment, correct skin antisepsis, and maintaining a no-touch technique during cannula insertion. Demonstrations covered vein selection, cannula insertion technique, securing the device, and post-procedure care. Doubts were clarified regarding infection control protocols. The session helped improve confidence, adherence to aseptic standards, and overall quality of patient care
