7.	Brief summary of the event in around 100 words (purpose, conduct, feedback, impact, suggestions)	Department of Anatomy organized a Dissection Competition on topic 'Submandibular Region' for 1st year MBBS students. The Lecture on the region was already conducted. The participation was dissection table wise (15 students on each table). The students had to do stepwise dissection of 'Submandibular Region'; independently without any help from faculty. They were provided with standard books and dissection charts to refer for the steps of dissection and structures in the region for first two days of competition. The students did the dissection with zeal and enthusiasm. They were judged by Dr. Shashank Vedpathak and Dr. Ashwini Bhele; based on the neatness, fineness of dissection, number of structures identified appropriately and knowledge of topic based on viva. This activity helped the students inculcate team work, collaboration and to study together in an effective way in the dissection hall. The winning table was table no. 6 and the runner-up was table no. 1. Winners were awarded with rotating trophy and certificates.
