Brief summary of the event in around 100 words (purpose, conduct, feedback, impact, suggestions)	The MANYATA accreditation renewal was conducted on 17th March under the supervision of Dr. Meenakshi Surve, Associate Professor, along with Dr. Sushma Sharma, Professor and Head of the Department and faculty. The process involved an online inspection during which the labour room staff were assessed on their knowledge of basic obstetric care and management of complications. The staff responded confidently to all queries, leaving a positive impression on the examiner. The inspection also included a virtual review of the labour room complex, where all available facilities were carefully evaluated. The certification was subsequently granted on 19th March. The Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology remains dedicated to upholding high standards of antenatal and postnatal care.
