Brief summary of the event in around 100 words (purpose, conduct, feedback, impact, suggestions etc.)	The NEET-PG examination is a harsh reality for MBBS students who start preparing for this entrance exams from Phase 2 itself. With the intent to build the capacity of the faculty to prepare MCQs for the students, not only as an assessment tool but also as a learning modality for NEET, the representative from 'Marrow' gave a presentation on how to utilise the Marrow MCQ bank. These MCQs can be selected on the basis of complexities and subtopics. These MCQs can be posted online and can be scored. The doubts of faculty were satisfactorily answered. The department of OBGY is committed to prepare the students not only for the university examinations but at the same time prepare them for the competitive entrance exams like NEET-PG. Collaboration with Marrow will help the faculty in this endeavour.
