He is a certified ATLS instructor from American College of Surgeons and has been awarded as a distinguished teacher by NBE. He took a guest lecture for the post graduate students of the department of General Surgery The Diabetic foot and its management. A topic of immense importance and crucial in surgical practise with 5 out of every 3 patients being diabetic foot and a major cause of amputation. Sir explained the basic pathophysiology, incidence in India, Dressing materials. Sir included photos of pre ans post treatment of his own patients. Sir also bursted a few myths about the Dressing technique that have been followed over the years. It was one of the best diabetic foot lectures attended so far. The lecture was very informative and enlightening for all the PG students and we would like to Sir to enlighten us on other topics as well in near future.
