12	Brief summary of the event in around 100 words (purpose, conduct, feedback, impact, suggestions)	Department of Anatomy organized a Dissection competition for all 150 students of 1st year MBBS the participation was dissection table wise (15 students on each table). The Topic for the competition was Gluteal region. An attempt was made so that the students inculcate team work and collaboration and help them study together in a effective way in dissection hall & during SDL activities. The students had to do dissection of Gluteal region on their respective dissection tables. The Lecture on the region was already conducted; the students had to do the stepwise dissection independently without any help from faculty. They were provided with standard books & dissection charts to refer for the steps of dissection & structures in the region. The students on each table did the dissection as a team and with zeal & enthusiasm. They were Judged by Dr Shashank Vedpathak Professor & Head of department & Dr Sushama Chavan Professor; based on the neatness , finesse of dissection, number of structures identified appropriately and knowledge of topic based on viva. Winners were appreciated with Certificates by hands of Respected Principal Dr Swati Belsare madam & Respected Vice Principal Dr Dhanaji Jadhav sir .
